THERE IS A TALE THEY TELL IN THE FORGOTTEN LANDS, A TALE
RACKED WITH MYTHS AND MONSTERS,
GODS AND MEN, AND MAD THINGS.
IN A TIME FAR BEYOND RECORD...

AMONGST MANY GREAT TALES OF
OLD, IS THE STORY OF THE ONCE
AND TRUE QUEEN OF THE IFE
KINGDOM, THE GREAT WARQUEEN
IRETÍ, THE STORM BRINGER.

THE COLD NIGHT WIND
SLITHERS AROUND HIM,
HIS CLOAK CANNOT BEAR
THE COLD, HIS MIND CANNOT BEAR THE WEIGHT IN HIS HEART...

IN HIS DAYS, KINGDOMS FELL
AT HIS FEET AND EVENTUALLY,
THE ONE HE FOUGHT FOR...

BUT WITH ALL HIS MIGHT,
HIS GREATEST FLAW, WAS THE
CURSE OF NOT HAVING A CHILD
TO BEAR HIS LEGACY EVEN AS HIS SUNSET YEARS APPROACHED.

BROKEN BEYOND REPAIR,
HE ASKED THE GODS TO EITHER
END HIS LIFE OR SAVE HIM
FROM HIS DISGRACE.

IN THOSE DAYS, WHEN THE GODS TALKED BACK
TO MAN, AND PRAYERS
OF PRIESTS BROUGHT DOWN
STORMS THAT DANCED LIKE
MADDENED MASQUERADES....

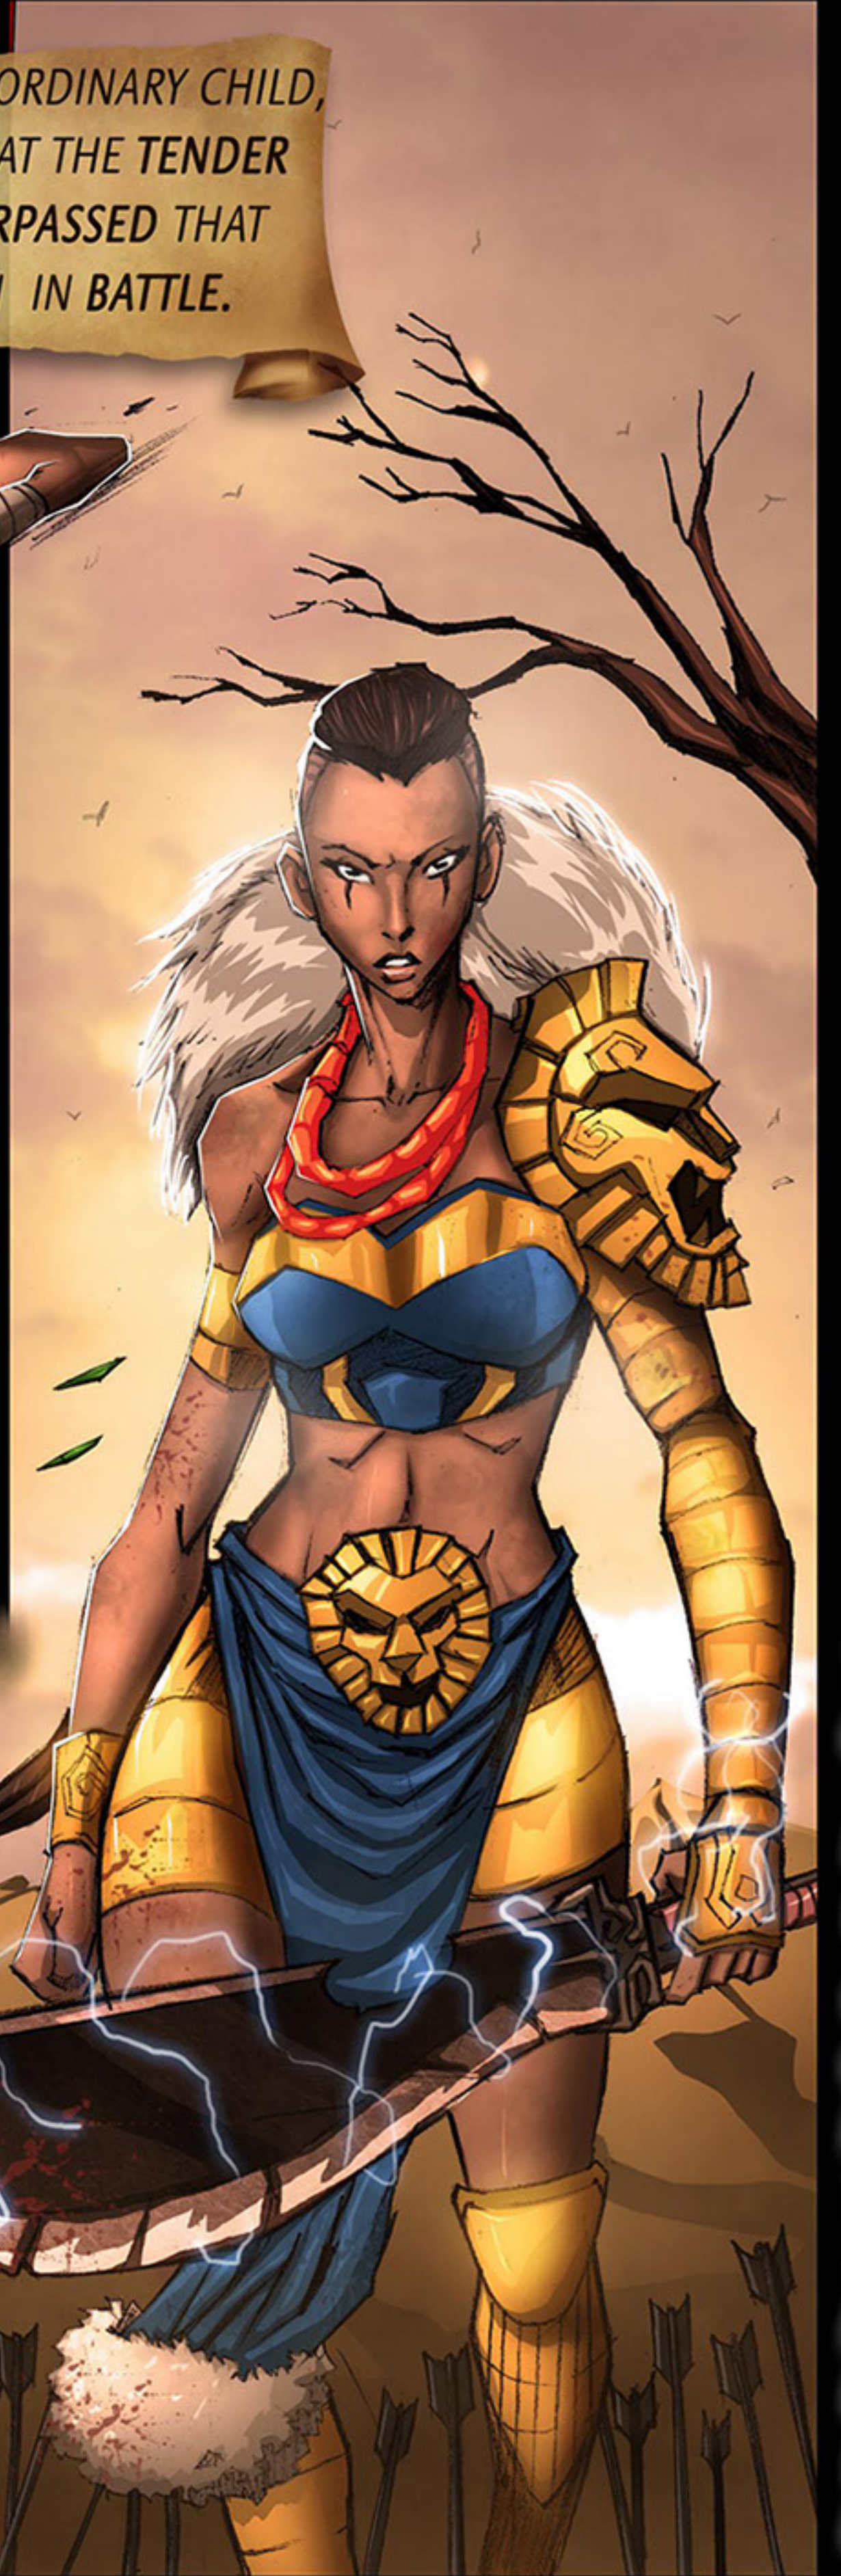

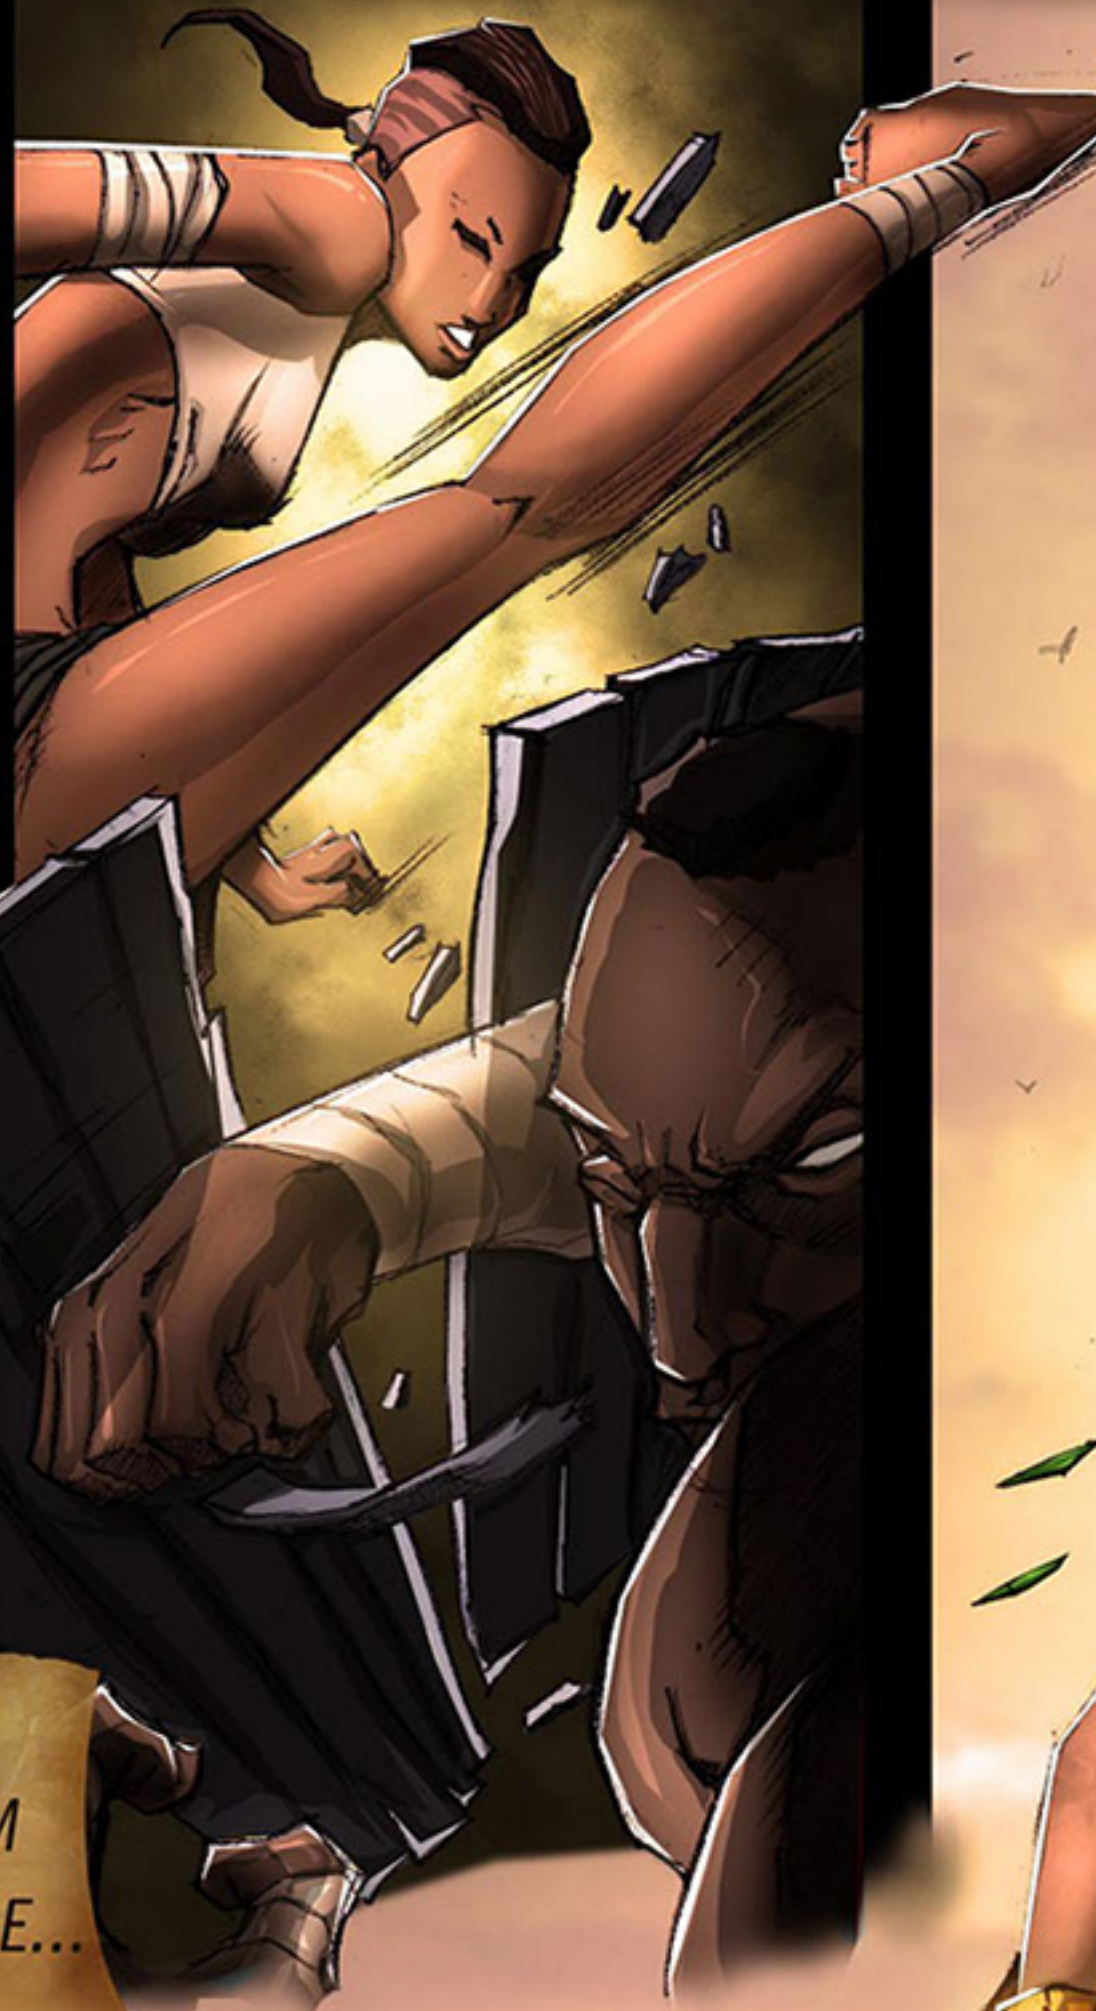

FAVORS AND REQUESTS WERE RARELY GRANTED TO THOSE WHO REQUESTED. THAT NIGHT IT WAS NOT THE WARLORD OORUN OF IFE KINGDOM THAT RETURNED HOME...

BUT SHE WAS NO ORDINARY CHILD, HER STRENGTH AT THE TENDER AGE OF 13 SURPASSED THAT OF 800 MEN IN BATTLE.

THE GODS HAD ANSWERED TO THEIR SUITING AND BLESSED HIM WITH NOT A MALE, BUT A FEMALE...

T O B E C O N T I N U E D . .

HER LEGEND GREW LIKE A RAGING STORM. THEY SAY SHE WAS INVINCIBLE IN BATTLE. ENTRUSTED WITH THE ÆRA NKAN, THE THUNDER SHARD OF SANGO AND THE STORMGUARD ARM FROM OGUN'S SMITH. AT HER FATHERS PASSING, IRETI RULED IFE, THAT WAS UNTIL CALAMITY BEFELL...

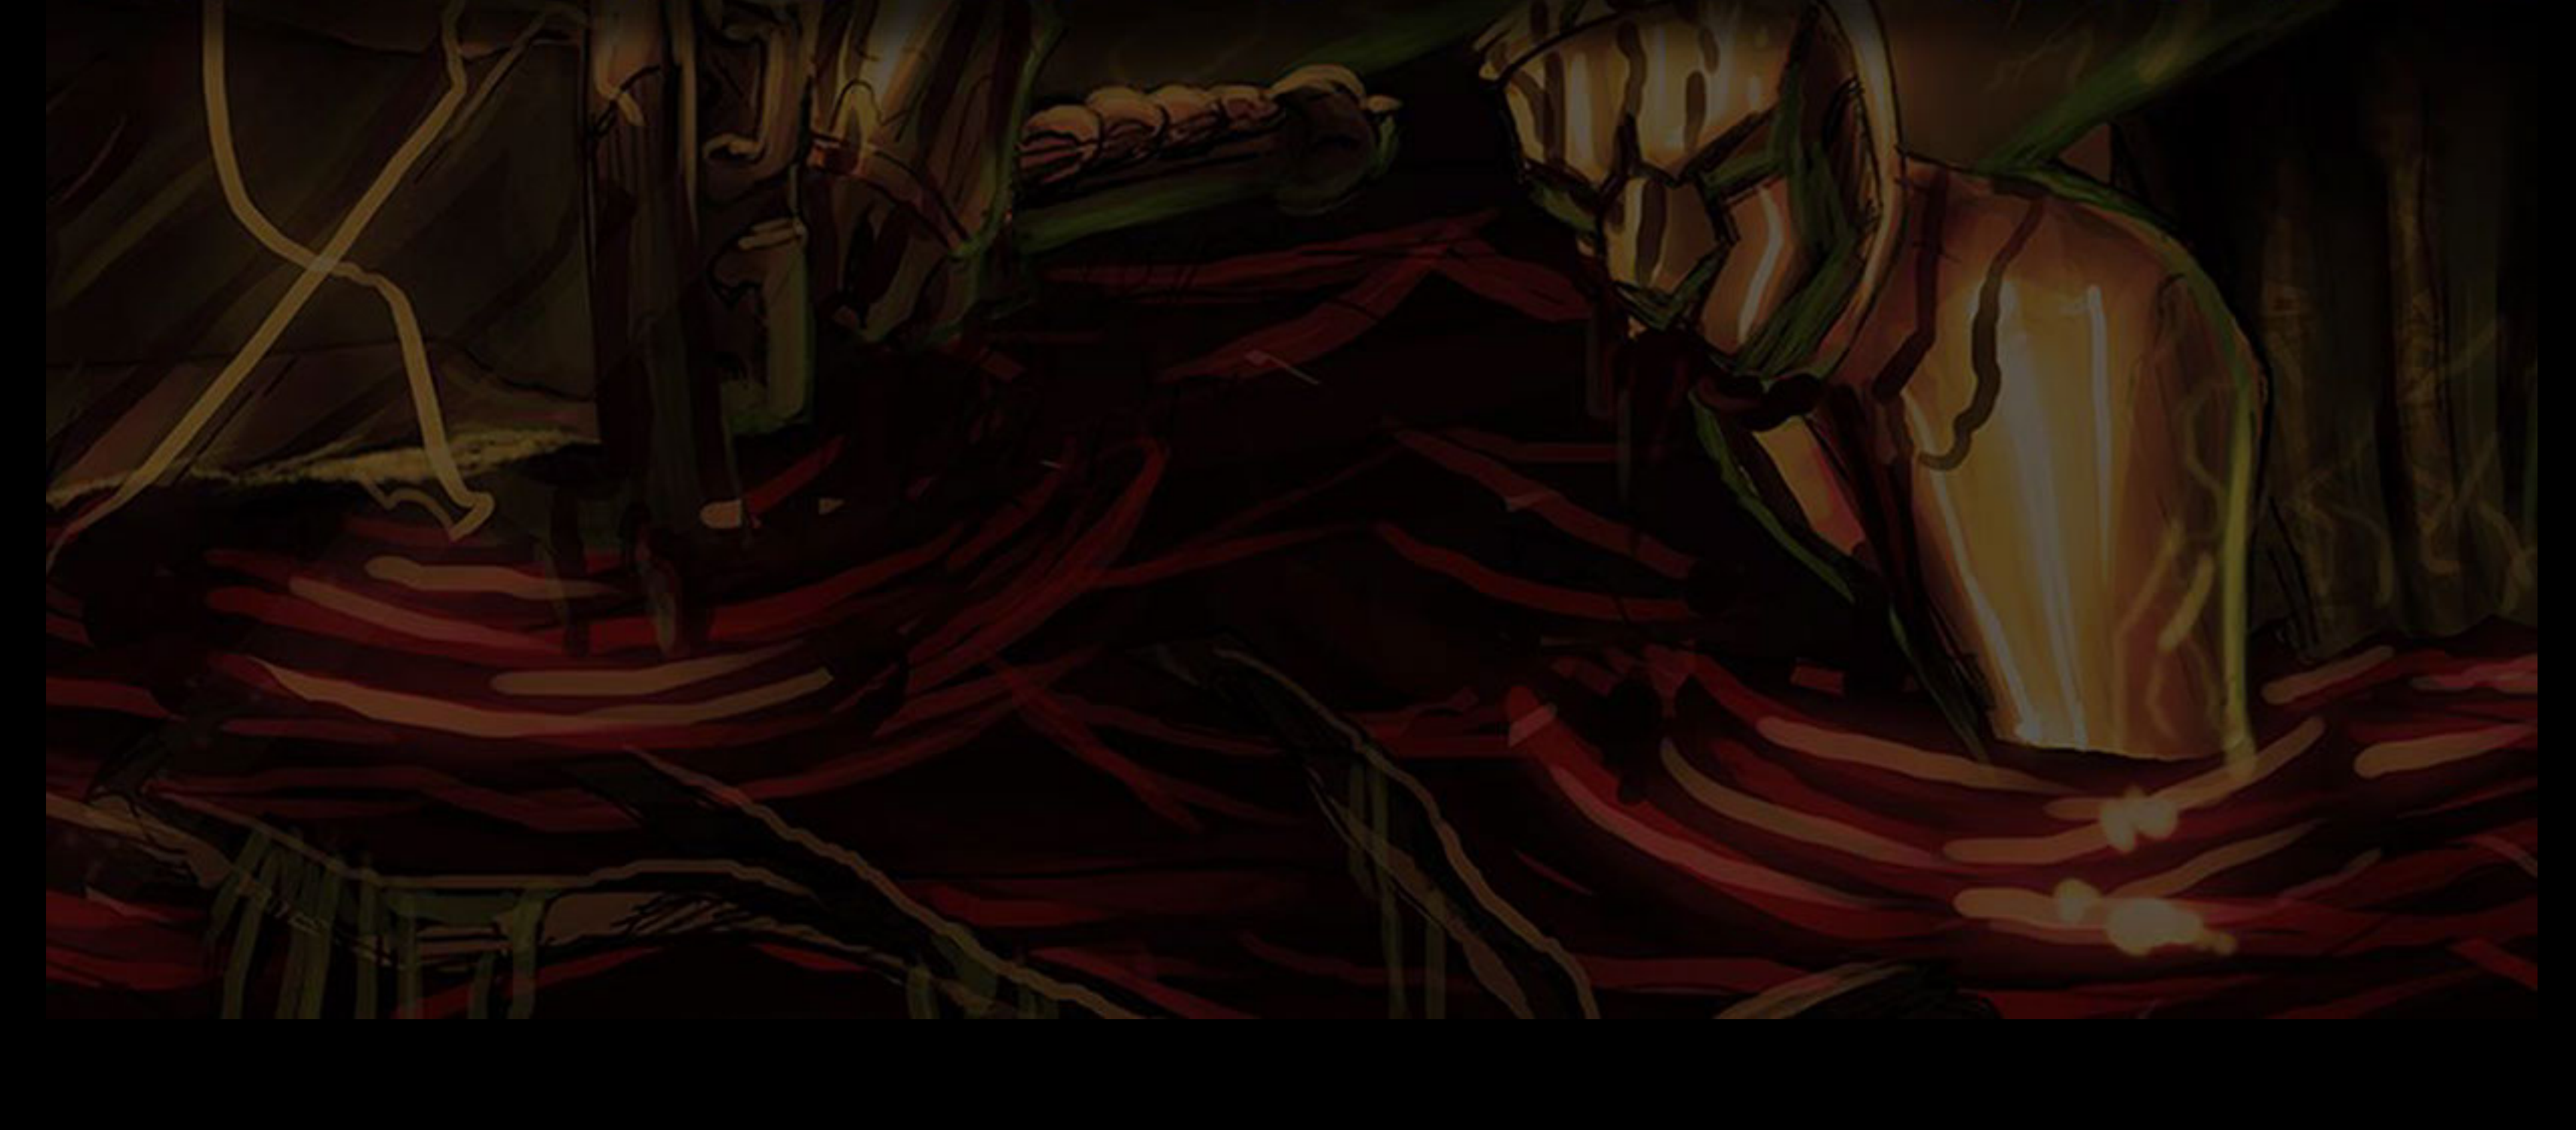

*translation (yoruba):

Æra nkan -(thunder piece or could mean thunder shard,)
